CARTE POSTALE. POSTKARTE.

(FOR ADDRESS ONLY.)

The River Llugwy finds its rise among the north-eastern heights of the Snowdon range, and flows through some particularly charming scenery—some of the finest in North Wales—until it eventually joins the Conway near Bettws-y-Coed. Its waters and surroundings form one of the most delightful items in the beautiful country about Capel Curig. Capital fishing can be obtained in the vicinity of this town, one of the most splendidly situated and most popular tourist resorts in the Principality.

M.D.2.

Have only time to send a P.C. but I have been wondering why you did not come to see us. I expect the Bazaar will be over now. All well here & a little kitten must come and see it soon. Hope you are all well. Love from all here

ON THE LLUGWY-
CAPEL CURIG.

Wan Tano Bettwsycoed Sept 7. 1910.

Dear Lucy-Cud. Sept 7. 1910.
Just a line to let you know we are getting on fine. We had a very pleasant journey from Liverpool to Llandudno Junction, & then changed for Bettwsycoed. We arrived here about 5 o'clock & found Mr Jones waiting for us with the waggonette. We have had splendid weather all the time we have been here. It has been very hot indeed.
Yesterday we had a drive to Capel Curig, & Pen-y-Gwryd & Llanberis Pass. We had lunch at Pen-y-Gwryd, & then drove on to Llanberis, where we had tea. We came back by Llanberis Lake, & Llyn Gwynant. It was a lovely drive. We are going to Conway on Tuesday, & Llanrwst on Wednesday, & Trefriw on Thursday. We shall not come back to Bettwsycoed again, but shall go straight on to Llandudno Junction & Colwyn Bay. We shall be at Colwyn Bay for a week, & then we shall go to Rhyl for a week.
We shall be at Rhyl on the 17th. We have had a very pleasant time here. We have been to Swallow Falls & Conway Castle & Aberglaslyn Pass. We have had a drive round Capel Curig Lake. We have had splendid weather all the time we have been here.
